

More Than A School

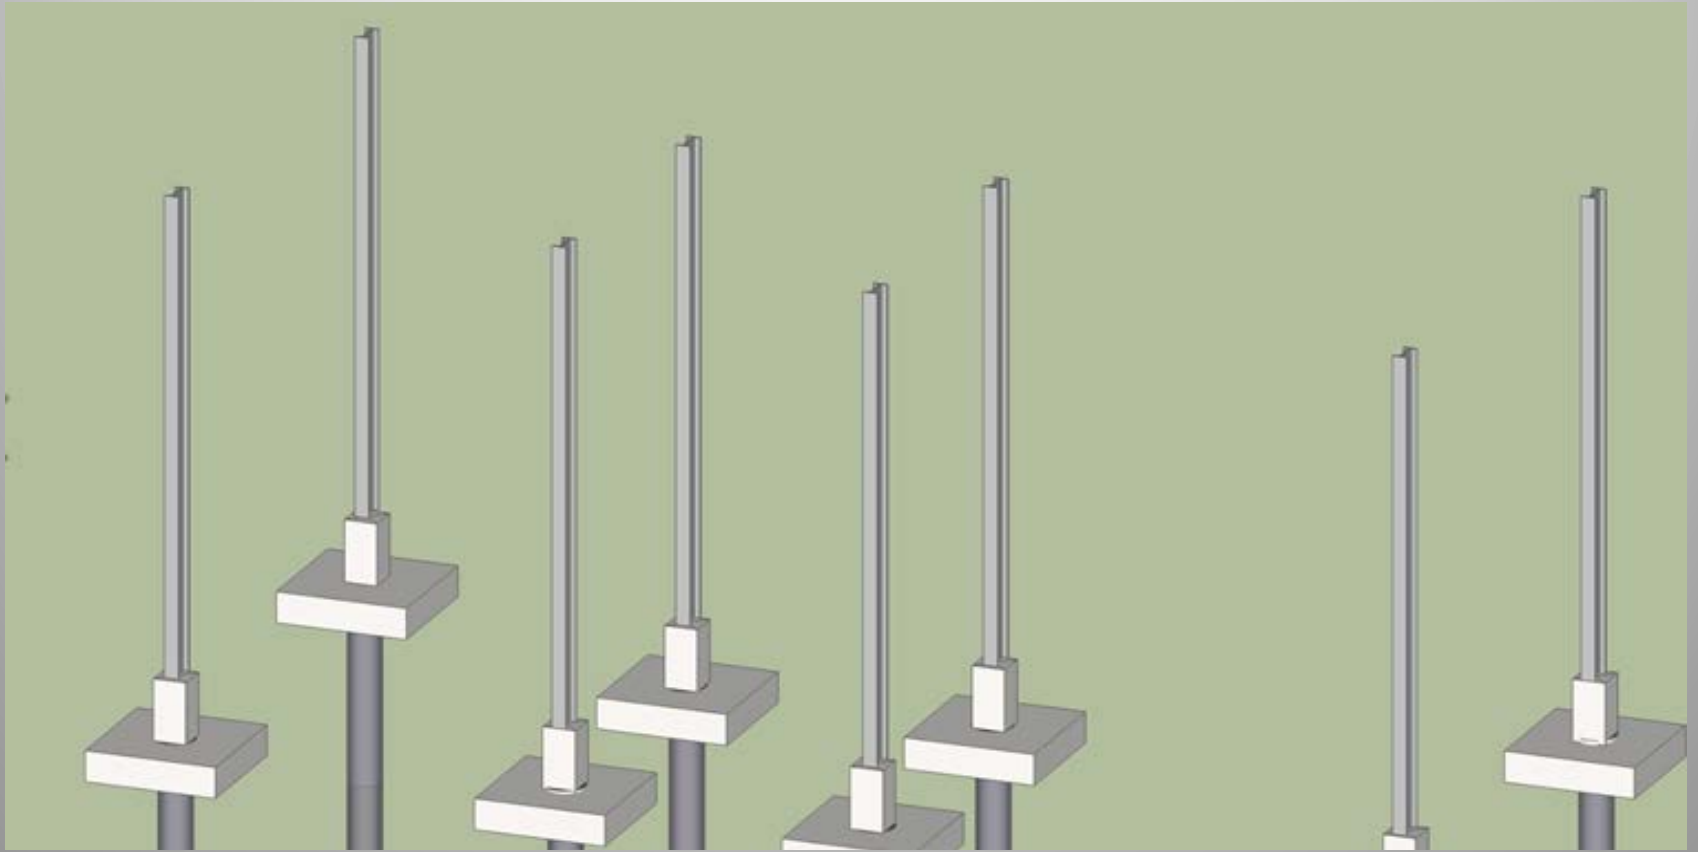

M.R. Null Middle
Sheldon ISD

City Dump: Two miles from Current Middle School

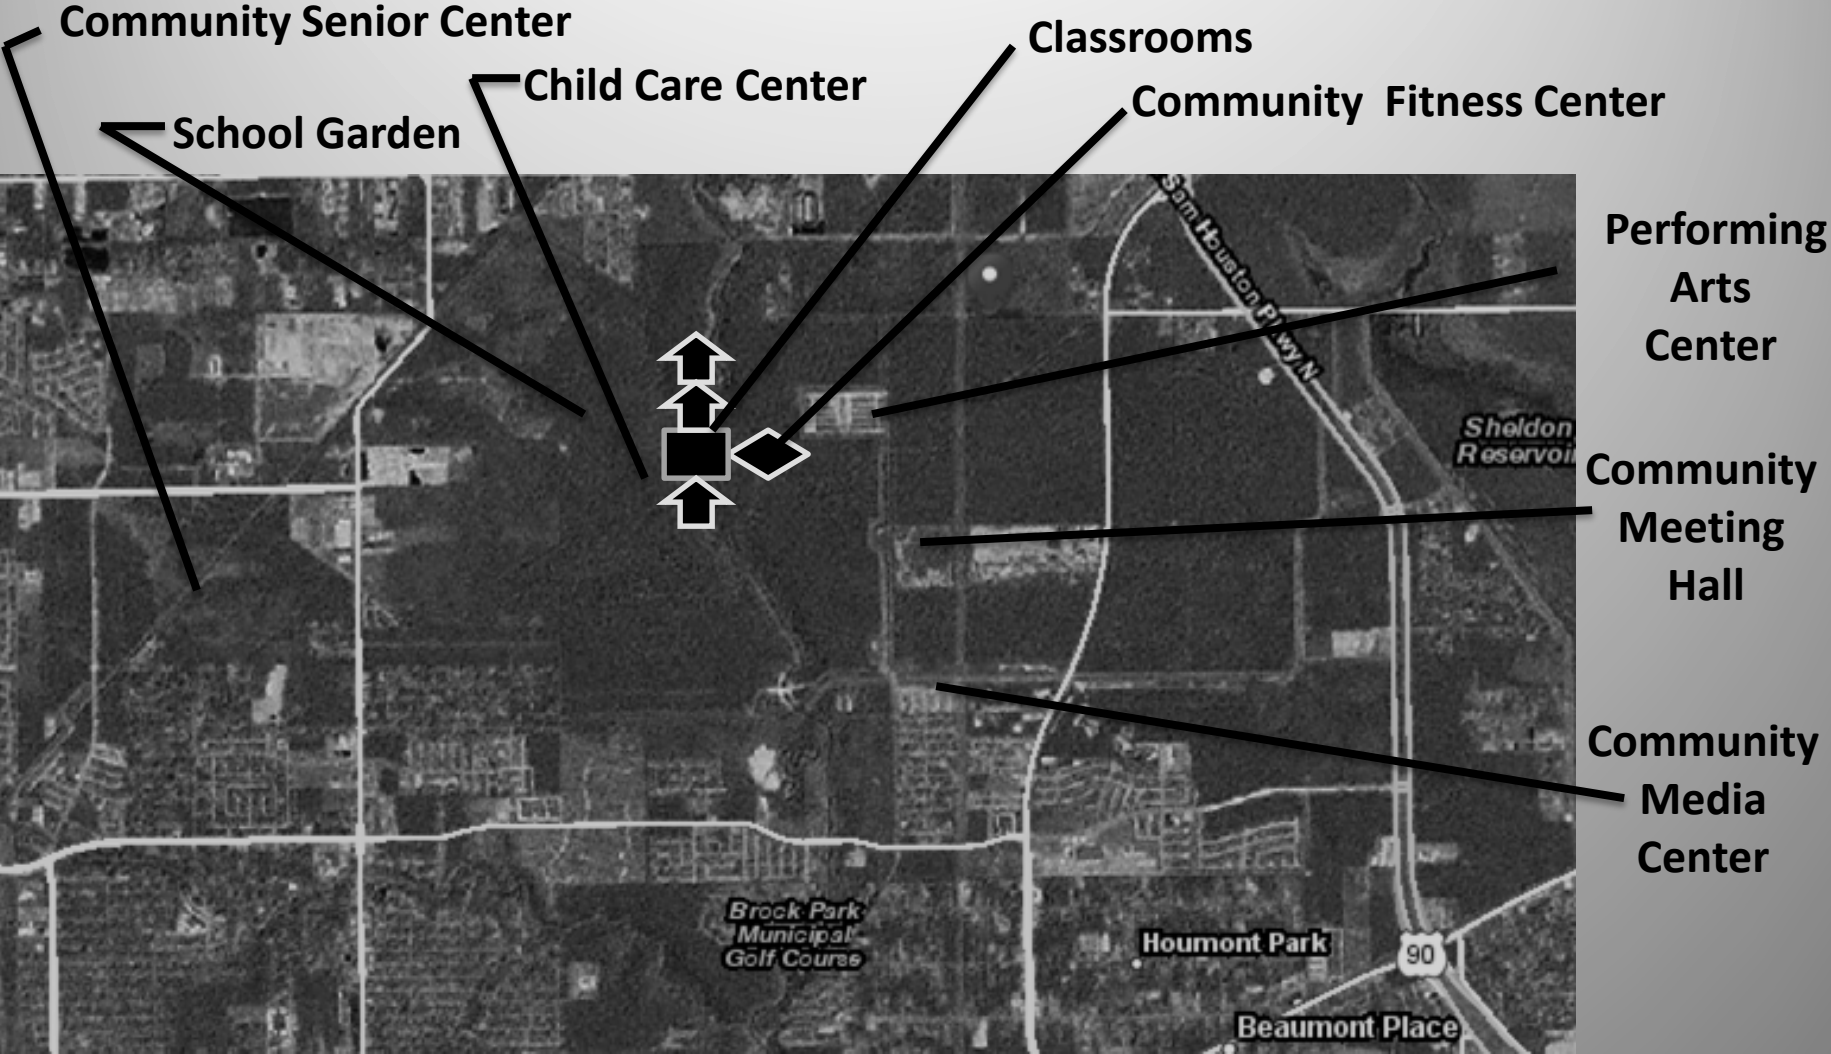

COMMUNITY

Sustainable = Caring for Community

Schools are the center of community

M.R. Null Middle School's Smart Growth Plan

- 1. Do not waste the community's land and resources
- 2. Offer the Community health care, jobs, shopping, and activities
- 3. Encourages community involvement
- 4. Attract Future Businesses

Shared Community Resources Include

- 24 hour Community Library and Video Center
- Counseling Services
- Doctors Office
- Emergency Services
- A School Garden
- A Fitness Center
- A Recycling Center
- A Transit Station
- Shops and Restaurants
- Electricity
- Continued Education Classes

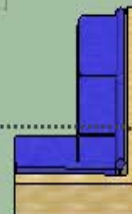

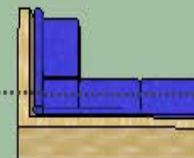

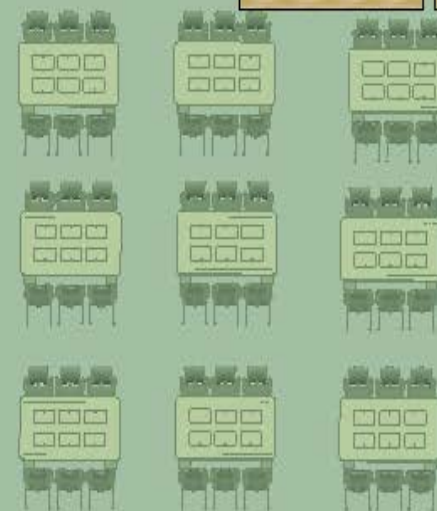

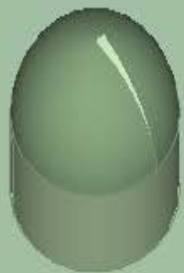

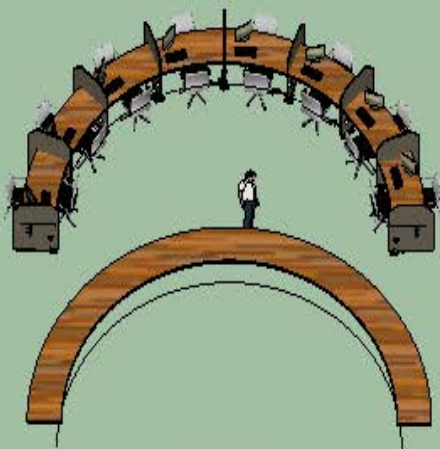

LEARNING CENTER SPACES

Introducing the Learning Centers

LEARNING SPACES

Learning Styles in Every Lesson

Lesson #1

Visual Learners: At the Tall Tables

Physical Learners: At Rectangle Table

Audio Learners: At Bean Bags

Verbal Learners: At Round Table

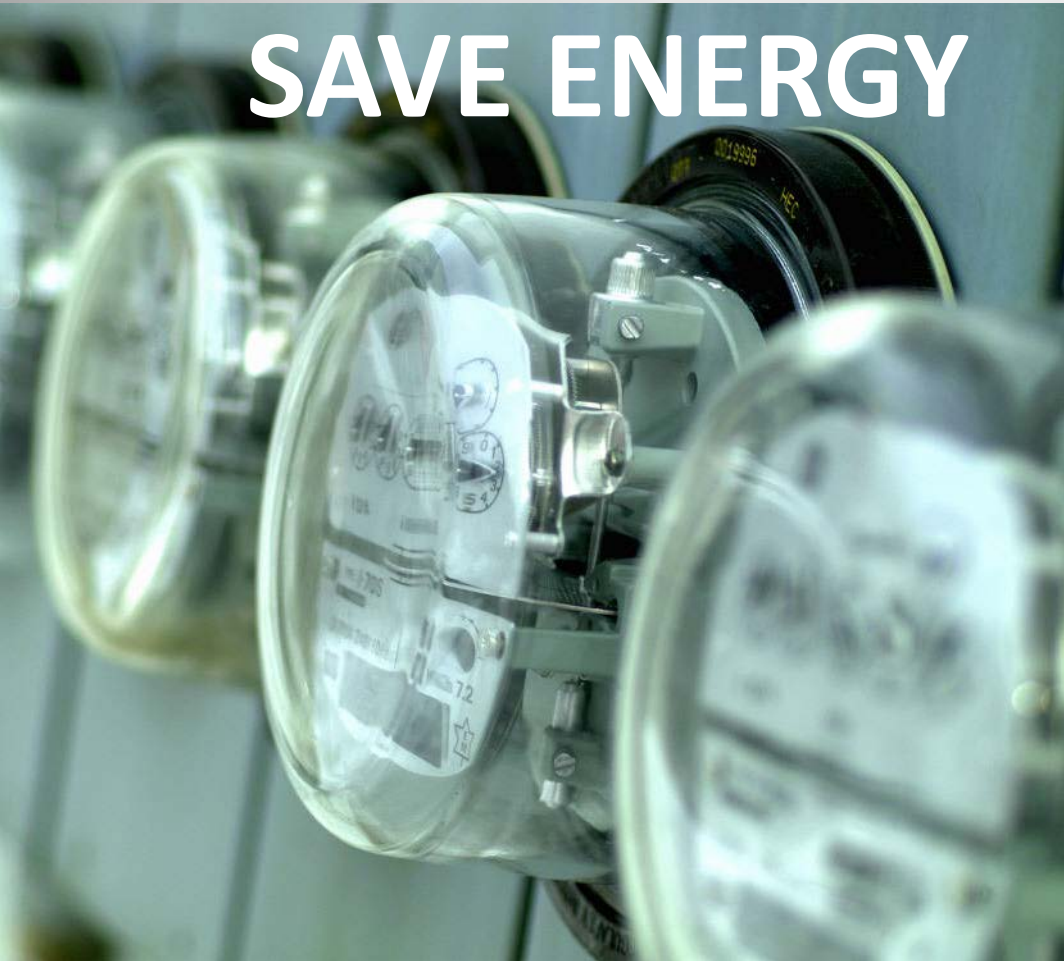

PODS

SUSTAINABLE DESIGN

Make Our Own Renewable Energy Reduce Our Carbon Foot Print

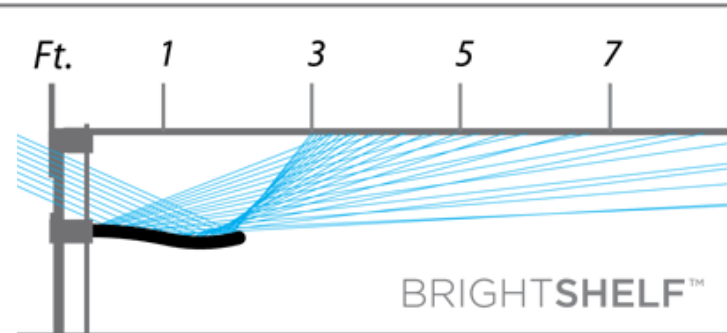

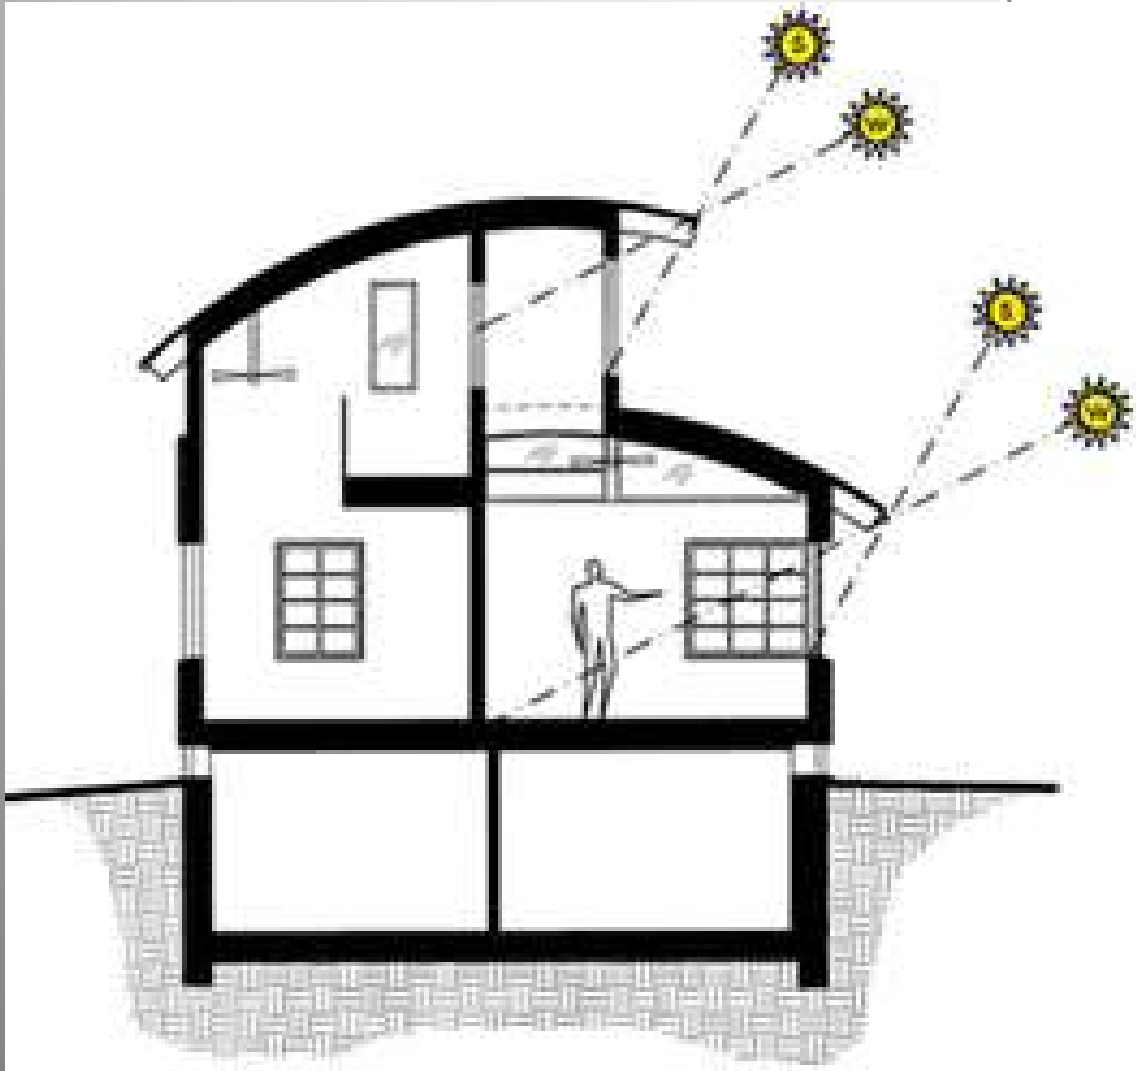

SAVE ENERGY

Sustainable Radiant Floors

Natural Light

SOUTH

Passive Lighting Design

Keep heat
out

Light Shelves

Get light in

Light Tubes

Cool

Physical Features

Stallion Stable

Stallion Stable:
Safe place for students to wait for the building to open.

Net-Zero Plus to Help Community

School's Energy
Source

City
Grid

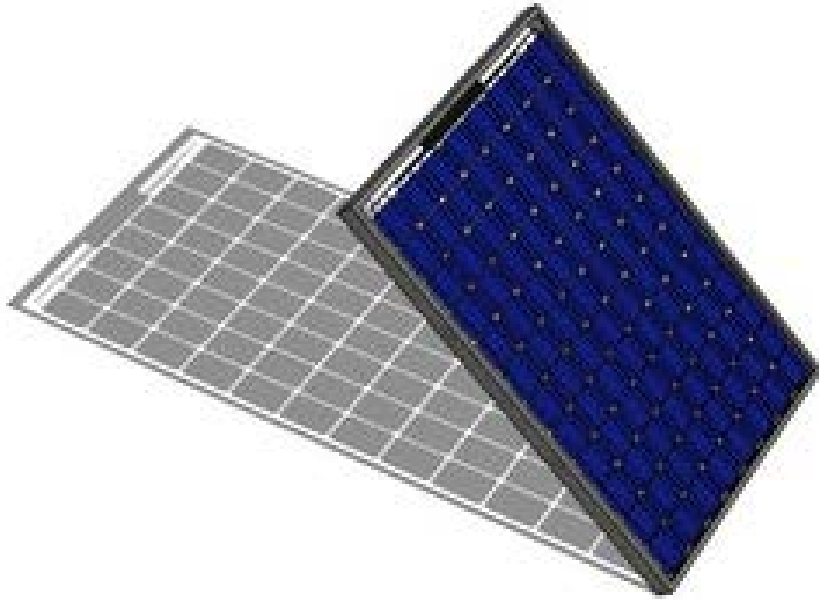

School
Generator

Community at Cheap Cost

Track of School Made Energy

Other Features

To Review

- Reusing land for building
- Use sustainable materials (like bamboo)
- Create a visually pleasing building
- Use games, experiments and Pods for learning
- School and Community work together

NMS Principals: Mrs. Zalesnik and Mr. Bradley

Architects:

Ramy Hanna, Laura Flannery Sachtleben and Roberto Zuniga

Teachers: Mr. Lincheck, Karlet Miramontes, and Wayne Richardson