Project Displays (Due at the Conference):

Project displays are due March 13 between 4:00 pm and 5:00 pm for display during the 2024 Association for Learning Environments SC Conference at the Marriott in downtown Columbia, SC.

The display shall consist of a 40" X 40" "hardboard on easel" format for each school project submitted for judging. The displays will be showcased throughout the duration of conference. Please adhere to the following guidelines when preparing your display:

- Include a full color overview of the project, including photos, graphics, etc.
- Plans, sections, or elevation drawings may be included; construction photos are optional
- Due to size and location restrictions, displays cannot utilize electricity, tables, or "tradeshow" type booths, but entrants should bring their own easels to display their boards.
- You may identify name of project, school district, and architectural firm along the bottom margin of your board this year since judging will occur prior to the conference.

Displays are to be set up in the designated area at the Conference and award winners will be announced at the Conference.
