

Central Texas Chapter November 2016 Conference

21st Century Learning: World Influencers

Keynote Speakers:

Prakash Nair, REFP

Founding President and CEO, Fielding Nair International

Prakash Nair is a futurist, a visionary planner and architect with Fielding Nair International, one of the world's leading change agents in education and school design. FNI has worked in 45 countries on six continents. He has received several international awards including the prestigious CEFPI MacConnell Award, the top honor worldwide for school design. Prakash has authored of two books on education and design including Blueprint for Tomorrow: Redesigning Schools for Student Centered Learning published by Harvard Education Press.

Susan Rundle

Performance Concepts International

Susan Rundle is President and CEO of Performance Concepts International (PCI). Her educational and workplace programs focus on creating learner-centered environments that inspire minds to dream and become more through an emphasis on learner self-awareness. Susan's program offerings include differentiation in the classroom through learning styles, enhancing individual and team performance, cultural diversity, and more. Susan also serves as an instructor for the A4LE Advanced Academy for Designing Learning Spaces, where she facilitates the first of six courses: Designing schools to Support Diverse Learning Needs. Since founding PCI in 1994, Susan has delivered and facilitated training programs in 24 states and in Australia, Bermuda, Canada, Costa Rica, Cyprus, Denmark, Dubai, England, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Hong Kong, Norway, Philippines, Sweden, Turkey, and Wales.

A Local Perspective: The Challenges of Implementation

Superintendent Panel:

Dr. Kelly Crook, Del Valle ISD

Dr. Andrew Kim, Comal ISD

Dr. Tom Leonard, Eanes ISD

WHEN: November 11, 2016
7:30 am - 1:00 pm

WHERE: Austin ISD Performing Arts Center
1500 Barbara Jordan Blvd.
Austin, TX 78723

COST: $15 Members
$20 Non-members
$0 Institutional Members
(Includes breakfast and lunch)
$200 Sponsors (does not include registration)

Click here to register or sponsor